

FLUTE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT MINI FESTIVAL 2008

Sunday 24 August
9.00 - 12.15pm

Scotch College
Morrison Street, Hawthorn

Cost: $79

Closing Date: Wednesday 6 August

Julia Breen and Phyllis Todner will be facilitating a morning of very practical and interactive sessions for flute teachers. All sessions will include lots of playing, so make sure to bring your flute!

The planned topics are:

Setting up a new student

This session will include practical role-plays and participatory exercises.

"Problem" pieces in the repertoire

Each participating teacher will select a piece, or section of a piece, which they have found students regularly have problems mastering, and together we will discuss ways to solve the problems.

Revision

The reasons for and purposes of revision, how to make it happen, and how to teach a new piece by linking it to earlier pieces.

Annual Professional Development Requirement Credit - 3 hours

Please complete payment details below and return to Suzuki Music with payment by Wednesday 6 August.
