

WHAT IS SUZUKI GRADUATION?

SUZUKI MUSIC
LEARNING WITH LOVE

Certain pieces in the Suzuki repertoire are designated as Graduation Levels. When students have studied beyond the piece for each level, they may graduate - that is, they prepare a polished performance of the set piece. They then receive a written report on their playing, and are presented with a Graduation Certificate at a special Graduation Concert.

The beautiful certificates, edged in gold, come from Japan and are screen printed from a painting done by Dr Suzuki himself.

Graduation is not an examination, and every child succeeds. Teachers present students only when they are certain that the performances are secure and musical and that the student is studying well beyond that particular level. To graduate is to achieve recognition for having reached a certain milestone in the ongoing process of musical education.

Graduation is not compulsory, however to graduate at any level beyond Level 1, a student must have graduated at all previous levels. More than one level may be presented on one occasion.

HOW IS THE GRADUATION PERFORMANCE PRESENTED?

In Japan, all graduation performances are taped. Currently in Victoria Flute, Cello and Voice graduations may be taped or presented in a live performance on certain given dates. Violin, Viola and Guitar graduations are taped, with one possible date for submission per year. Pianists generally present a live performance, with two or three possible dates each year.

Qualified teachers listen to graduations, and write positive and helpful reports. These reports are sent initially to teachers who pass them on to the students.

GRADUATION CERTIFICATES STRINGS, ORGAN, RECORDER, FLUTE and VOICE

Certificates are created at the end of each year and teachers collect these to sign and give to students, often at their own concert event.

PIANO

Graduation Celebration Concerts are held at the end of each year. Graduating students perform a solo item of their choice and are presented with their certificates.

CONDITIONS

For teachers to be eligible to enter students for graduation they must have completed Primary Teacher Accreditation, be financial members of Suzuki Music and have fulfilled the annual Professional Development requirement in the previous year.

Families must be financial members of Suzuki Music from the beginning of the year in which they graduate (no part year memberships).
